For participants

Download AT&T Connect®

Download AT&T Connect directly from the AT&T Connect website at: <http://www.corp.att.com/attconnectsupport/downloads/> or...

Click the download link in your email invitation to a conference.

Free trial account

When opening AT&T Connect, you may get an offer for a free trial host account. If you register for the free trial, your account status will be displayed on a bar in the home screen. You can upgrade to a premium account by clicking on the bar. For more information, please visit: <https://trial.uc.att.com/>.

This free trial is available only to new AT&T Connect® customers located in the US. Some restrictions apply.

Launch the application

Click the AT&T Connect button that now appears on your desktop and taskbar.

Join a conference

Click the link in your email invitation.

or...

Join a scheduled conference from your calendar.

- When you receive an email invitation to a conference, accepting it inserts the conference into your calendar.
- On the day of the conference, double-click the meeting in your calendar and click the link to the conference.
- Or, if you installed the AT&T Conferencing Add-in for Outlook (recommended), click the Join Conference button in the meeting reminder.

or...

Join a conference from the home page, which displays information about conferences starting within the next three hours.

- Click Join in the home page. You may enter a virtual waiting room for a few moments before entering the conference.

Select your audio and video options in the Connection Setup window

- To activate video, turn on Show my Video.
- To connect your audio, choose from:
 - Call me at—has Connect call you from the conference.
 - Dial-in—for dialling in to the conference according to the instructions page.
 - Voice over computer—for using your headset or mike and speakers.

Chat with participants

To send a chat:

- In the Participants list, click the name of the participant you want to chat with and then click Write Private Note.
- Type your note in the text box and press Enter.
Note: Dragging the chat popup into the whiteboard area detaches it from the Participants list. This lets you have multiple chats open simultaneously.

To save chats:

Right-click a conversation and click Save Conversation.

Use video

Once you set up your video, you can view up to six videos in the detached video screen, with the six most-recent speakers in view.

- Click the video button in the toolbar to “register” your intention to transmit video.
- Click the button again to “un-register. You won’t transmit video anymore, even as an active speaker.

To set up your video display:

In the Video panel, click the Layout button to select how you want to view the video streams:

- Speaker Only—displays only your video
- All Equal—displays all the video streams in the same size.
- Follow the Speaker—displays the current speaker in a larger frame than the other streamed participants.

Write meeting minutes

- Write editable minutes in the Minutes tab.
- Snapshots you take of the whiteboard are saved in the Snapshot tab.
- Retrieve the meeting minutes and snapshots in the History page.
Note: You can retrieve minutes and snapshots only from the device you created them on.

Record the conference

- From the Recording menu, click Start Local Recording.
- Play back the recording in the History panel.

View conference history

Click View Home/History page in the Share/View menu or in the home page, click the History button.

To access conference details:

- Click the conference in the left panel and view the details on the right.
- Click View web conferences and recordings at the bottom left of the history panel to open the My Web Conferences and Recordings window to play back your recordings.

What else can you do in the History panel?
